

EPA CONNECT

June 2006

SmokeWatch launch

Jess Gilding, SmokeWatch project manager

Chris Powell from the EPA's air quality lab at Netley.

Peter Dolan, Science and Sustainability Director signing up to the SmokeWatch pledge. Incidentally, that's his uncle of the left, Adelaide Hills Deputy Mayor Bill Gale.

The EPA launched SmokeWatch on World Environment Day Monday June 6 at the Woodside Primary School. The program is being run with support from the Adelaide Hills Council, and aims to reduce wood smoke in the Adelaide Hills by encouraging householders to use their wood heaters efficiently.